

Reunion Class Committee Member

Position Summary: Assist the University of Delaware in reconnecting with classmates, plan your reunion celebration and help increase philanthropic support for your alma mater.

Responsibilities:

- Contact classmates to encourage attendance and build enthusiasm for the class reunion and Alumni Weekend 2012.
- Provide input on the planning of the reunion celebration, such as the format of the event, entertainment, costs, speakers, theme, music, food, etc.
- Make a personal gift in support of the Reunion Class Gift efforts.
- Contact at least twenty classmates to encourage their participation in class giving efforts.
- Help to provide contact information for class members with whom the University has lost contact.
- Provide memorabilia and stories for use in mailings, on the class website and other promotional materials as needed.
- Attend monthly committee meetings in person or via conference call.
- Attend Alumni Weekend 2012.
- Respond to email and give feedback on University-wide or reunion-specific initiatives.
- Other duties as needed.

Benefits:

- Get contact information of former friends, and have a great excuse to reconnect.
- Act as the voice of your class.
- Opportunity to network with 20-25 fellow Blue Hens from your class year.
- Gain an insider's perspective on the vision and strategic goals of the University.
- Build and strengthen alumni connections to provide current and future generations of Blue Hens with a strong and vibrant alumni community.
- Invitation to events with key University leadership.
- Recognition in the President's Report of Philanthropy, UDconnection.com, The Messenger magazine and in various electronic and direct mail communications with classmates throughout the year.

Qualifications:

- Interest in reconnecting with classmates, and supporting your alma mater.
- Understanding and acceptance of the University of Delaware's Path to Prominence.
- Willingness to maintain confidentiality of alumni information.
- Blue Hen pride.

Training Opportunities:

- Reunion Manual
- September Volunteer Leadership training
- Ongoing communication with the Office of Annual Giving and the Office of Alumni Relations.

Time Commitment: Monthly conference calls from September to May; variable hours engaging classmates through phone, email or social media interaction (about 4 hours per month as the reunion celebration approaches); and attendance at Alumni Weekend from June 1-3, 2012.
